A recent report says that British teenagers watch between two and a half and three hours of TV every day! And the teenagers say that the TV is always on in their homes, even when nobody watches it! We speak to three teenagers and see what they say about TV.

Jessica

I always watch the news – I watch it once or twice a day. I usually watch TV when I get home from school and when I have dinner. But I hardly ever watch TV after dinner because I do my homework then and I can't concentrate when the TV is on.

Tim

I love watching films. I watch them three or four times a week. My favourite films are action films and comedy films. I also like tennis and motorcycling so I sometimes watch sports programmes, but only at the weekend. I never watch reality shows – I hate them!

Rob

I watch cartoons at breakfast every morning. But my favourite programme are reality shows. I always watch Big Brother, Pop Idol and programmes like that. I often watch them when I do my homework and when I have dinner. I don't often watch TV at lunch time but that's because I have lunch at school.

- a. This person loves reality show – Rob
- b. This person watches cartoons – _____
- c. This person doesn't normally watch TV when doing homework - _____
- d. This person is interested in sport - _____
- e. This person eats lunch at school - _____
- f. This person says he doesn't like programmes like Big Brother or Pop idol - ____
- g. This person is a TV addict - _____
